Union Bosses for Lawmakers?

The public is not particularly concerned whether public employees strike or not.

That is unfortunate because disinterest in this vital matter is a sure indication of ignorance of its ramifications.

Right now, there are a number of bills in the legislature that, if passed, would give all public employees, including teachers, firemen and policemen collective bargaining rights and strike privileges.

It was State Senator John Stull who spelled out some of the considerations that go into the issue.

He notes that a large number of legislators were elected or reelected with financial assistance of organized labor, the state employees' association and the teachers' organizations. So it is likely that one of the several measures that have been introduced, will pass.

Not only are strikes by public employees destructive of the public's trust but they are inimical to the public's interest. And in the case of peace officers, adverse to the safety of the people who they are sworn to protect.

There are some facets to strikes and bargaining that public employees may not have been advised of.

Some legislators have not thought the matter through. They should because there is much more to such legislation than political promises.

Let's look at these considerations:

Should public employees retain the protections and privileges of civil service if they are given the right to strike and bargain collectively?

Should school teachers retain the protections and privileges of tenure (permanency) if they are given the right to strike and bargain collectively?

With whom, in particular, will state employees bargain—the Governor? the State Personnel Board? Or the Legislature? And if it is with the Governor or the State Personnel Board will this not constitute an unconscionable abdication of responsibility by the duly elected representatives of the taxpayers — their legislators? If it is with the legislature, will such bargaining take place with each legislator, or with only a few, in which case will those representatives who are not consulted be violating their fiscal responsibilities to their constituents?

Would not a provision calling for binding arbitration by a third party be placing responsibility for obligating taxpayer money in the hands of non-elected parties? Should public monies be spent in this fashion?

Will a public employee be forced, as a member of an employees' union or organization, to contribute to that group's political action fund, which in turn would contribute to the political campaigns of the same officials with whom they must subsequently bargain collectively?

Will government of, by and for the people in reality be transformed into government of, by and for organized labor, dominated by a few labor bosses? Is it right for a citizen to be required to join a union or pay union fees in order to be employed by his government? Must we have such taxpayer-financed unions?

Will legislative employees also be allowed to organize, to bargain collectively, and to strike?

Taxpayers should be aware of the pitfalls in the sort of legislation which leads towards a unionized government.

Call your legislator while he is home on holiday vacation and tell him your thoughts on this issue. Or write him at Sacramento.

The alternative is that next year you may be calling or writing to a union boss with whom you would have absolutely no influence.

Right to Robbery

The four gunmen who held up a Richfield, Minnesota supermarket last week holding 50 shoppers hostage, may have opened a new form of gangwar.

The robbers encroached on the market's customer-robbering rights. The market may retaliate by demanding that the robbers advertise for their own customers.

Thief's Loot $415

Someone pried the kitchen door open at her home at 2627 Nina pl. in Lemon Grove, ined the closet for at least Shirley Ann Lenox told Sheriff's deputies Friday.

Included in the loss were time, two rings; one bottle of alcohol and three records with a total value of $415, she said. Police reported there was no evidence of ransacking.

Deputies Nab 3 In Stake-out

Police arrested three persons on a charge of attempted burglary Sunday around 11 p.m. when they caught them in the rear of Apex Music Store, 7654 Broadway, Lemon Grove.

Sheriff's deputies operating a stake-out caught them soon after they allegedly attempted to pry open the rear door of the firm.

Robert John Dorr, 23, and a 17-year old girl were charged additionally with possession of restricted dangerous drugs when they found two red capsules and two marijuana cigarettes which they claim belonged to the pair. Glenn Arthur Haynes, 19, was charged only with attempted burglary. All had a National City address.

The girl was released to her mother but police visited her home when she twice cut her wrist in what the police reported as suicide attempts. After the second attempt she was taken to holding facility until psychiatric help could be given.

Three Juveniles In Law's Toils

Three youngsters in their early teens are in the toils of the law — just in time for the holidays.

A 13-year old Spring Valley girl put a half-pint of creme de cacao under her coat Friday and fled from the Royal Liquor store at 1107 Sweetwater rd. about 8:30 a.m.

The clerk, Dorothy Ann Balogh, attracted a California Highway Patrol officer and he caught the girl a block away.

The liquor was returned to the store and the girl was remanded to her mother.

A 14-year old boy on Nina st., Lemon Grove, with a previous arrest record for growing marijuana in his back yard, was arrested again on Friday. This time he possessed four baggies of marijuana, according to sheriff's deputies. He is reported to have obtained them in Ocean Beach for $10 a bag. He was placed in Juvenile Hall.

A fifteen-year old youth, a student at Mt. Miguel High school, was charged with possessing a baggie of marijuana — weight 33 grams — and four alligator clips, while attending classes. He is said to have admitted that he was selling it for a friend but refused to name the person. He was released to the custody of his mother.

Environmental Comment Asked On Area Project

Requests for approval of three projects have been made to the San Diego County Office of Environmental Management. One of them is the Helix Bayview project, a subdivision about three-quarters of a mile east of Bancroft dr. on Grandview dr.

The subdivision of 22.9 acres will have 35 lots for single-family residential units.

Other requests are for 3.03 acres in Leucadia and for 26.5 acres in Lakeside.

A public review period for Environmental Impact Reports ends January 6.

The Helix Bayview EIR is available for review at county branch libraries in Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and La Mesa.

Comments on drafts of the EIR's must be submitted in writing to the San Diego Office of Environmental Management by January 6.

$73,000 Wage Boost Re-scheduled

Water Rates Hiked 16 Per Cent

Water rates for the typical householder in the Helix Water District will be raised $1.37 per month following action taken by the District's board of directors at last week's board meeting. The percentage increase is approximately 16 1/2%.

The new rate, which takes effect immediately, will not be felt by water users until they receive their first bill after February 15. The increase

Lemon Grove's 'First Citizen'

'Tony' Sonka Dies

Death came quietly to A. F. and adjacent properties. Across the street the block cornered by Rexall Drugs. Small bits of these sections were sold but the major portion still rests in the ownership of Sonka Brothers.

He lived at 2780 Buena Vista ave. in Lemon Grove.

Behind him lay 89 years of hearty health except for the last two years during which he underwent several surgical procedures.

Sonka was born in Seguin, Texas May 25, 1885, the son of Anton and Anna (Klein) Sonka.

He attended elementary and high schools in Seguin and St. Louis College in San Antonio. He came to California in 1903 and was a clerk in a feed store in Santa Cruz, California until 1905 when he came to San Diego to enter the carriage building and painting business. In 1907 he joined his parents and his brother in the operation of a general merchandise store in Lemon Grove.

He was a member of the Roosevelt club of Lemon Grove and later was appointed as postmaster by the Postmaster General in 1908. His last appointment was in May, 1934 and that was by Presidential commission.

He was a charter member of the Lemon Grove Lion's Club and of the now defunct L.G. Men's Club. He was also a member of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce and the I.O.O.F.

He was a subject of "Who's Who in the New Deal", a book published in 1938.

Politics and Baseball Tony Sonka was immensely popular with his peers and they gathered around the general store and discussed politics and baseball. His two brothers, Emil and Edward, both deceased, were outstanding baseball players.

The store was sold in 1945 and Sonka turned his attention to developing the various parcels of property he owned. Among the major holdings was the block occupied by Food Basket Market and Thrifty Drug; the corner now occupied by El Amigo restaurant. Also the area now occupied by Imperial Savings

3 Days, 3 Armed Robberies Of Spring Valley Firms

To some Christmas brings Peace and Joy.

To others it brings armed robberies.

Over the three-day week-end the latter is what it brought to three Spring Valley establishments — all three within shooting distance of each other.

On Friday, a white male, about 180 pounds and 40-45 years of age pointed a small revolver at Stanley Edward Sweeder, clerk of the Casa de Oro Liquor store and ordered him to hand over the receipts.

The robber had a nylon mask pulled over his face and his features were not easily distinguishable. When he left he had $785 of the store's money with him. The store is at 9727 Campo rd.

will average $2.64 for each two months billing period. Harry Griffen, Helix president, said during discussion on the increase, "This is in keeping with information furnished at the time we considered our 1974-75 budget last June and additional information circulated in connection with the revenue bond authorization election last November."

To meet partially an anticipated $284,170 deficit in the District's $7 million 1974-75 budget approved last June, a 48 cent increase will be added to the service charge for a 5/8 inch meter, the size which serves 90 percent of the District's users.

Also to help meet the budget deficit, the commodity charge will be increased by three cents per 10 cubic feet of water used.

Debt service funds will be accumulated by an addition to the bimonthly service charge of 74 cents for 5/8 inch meters and a commodity charge increase of one cent per 100 cubic feet.

The service charge will be increased proportionately for larger meters.

"The portion of this increase to be used for debt service is fairly well in line with projections we made at the time of the bond election," Griffen pointed out.

No action was taken by the board on a $73,000 cost-of-living increase request from the agency's Employees Committee. The request will be considered at the board's next meeting, scheduled for January 8.

In other action, the board approved a $30,000 warrant to settle a suit for reversionary rights to Lake Cuyamaca filed by Waldo Waterman. Lake Cuyamaca is the District's primary catchment basin for local runoff water.

The suit stemmed from an original grant to the predecessor district from the former California Governor Waterman, who provided the land to be used as a catchment reservoir.

Waldo Waterman, an heir, claimed the property had been used for grazing and other purposes than its intended use and demanded the property back. The $30,000 warrant settled the suit.

WHEREAS, he has always worked to make the community of Lemon Grove a better and happier place in which to live, winning for himself not only the admiration of his colleagues but also the heartfelt esteem of the people of the entire area, and

WHEREAS, the Supervisors of the county have always considered Tony Sonka a true and honored friend and are reminded on this occasion of his many accomplishments

Home Repair Survey Being Taken Here

Residents in this area will be visited January 2-10 by representatives of the U.S. Department of Social and Economic Statistics Administration.

The Administration wants to know what you have spent on upkeep and improvements to your home. Questions will concern what you have spent on improvements such as additions, repairs, alterations or major replacements.

A survey is taken four times yearly to provide a continuing measure of this segment of the nation's economy. In July the survey showed that during the second quarter owner-occupants of single-unit properties spent $2.5 billion.

Approximately 6,000 homes throughout the nation are contacted during each survey. It is not known what use is made of the information aside from reporting it, but it is said to be held in strict confidence. The survey is manned by the Bureau of Census.

In the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area the Census Bureau interviewer is Bruno E. Altomare, 9520 Tropico dr., La Mesa.

25 Members Elected To Serve On Valle De Oro Committee

Twenty-five at-large members were elected last week to the Citizens Executive Committee of the Valle de Oro Community Planning Program.

The committee will work with the county to prepare a community plan for Spring Valley, Casa de Oro and the unincorporated areas surrounding the two communities.

The new members are: Harriet Allen, James K. Baker, Grace Vezzani, Lyall G. James A. Bartels, Milton E. Young, Clark, Priscilla D. Dodds, Wal-

'Grandfather' Rescues Some Massage Parlours

There's a grandfather in your local massage parlour. But it's a clause, not a person.

It's the grandfather's clause that protects parlour operators against closure following the County Board of Supervisors new zoning ordinance amendment which, in the future, requires a special use permit for massage operations within 600 feet of any playground, church or school.

Those houses of massage now in operation are protected by "grandfather" and may continue to do so unless there is a change in ownership or address.

And until that occurs, He doesn't keep it at home "grandfather" lives on the any more.

Fraud Detail Spells 'Happy Holidays' for Gift Giver

A story with a happy holiday quirk resulted from some fancy police work by a couple of sheriff's deputies on the Sheriff's Fraud Detail.

Mrs. Blanche May Shugars, of 1510 Gowin st., in Spring Valley, had purchased 13 money orders on December 2nd at Home Federal Savings and Loan at 619 Sweetwater rd., Spring Valley. They were to be Christmas gifts.

When she got home an order for $309.34 was missing. The bank recorded that it had been issued to her and it became obvious that she had lost it enroute home.

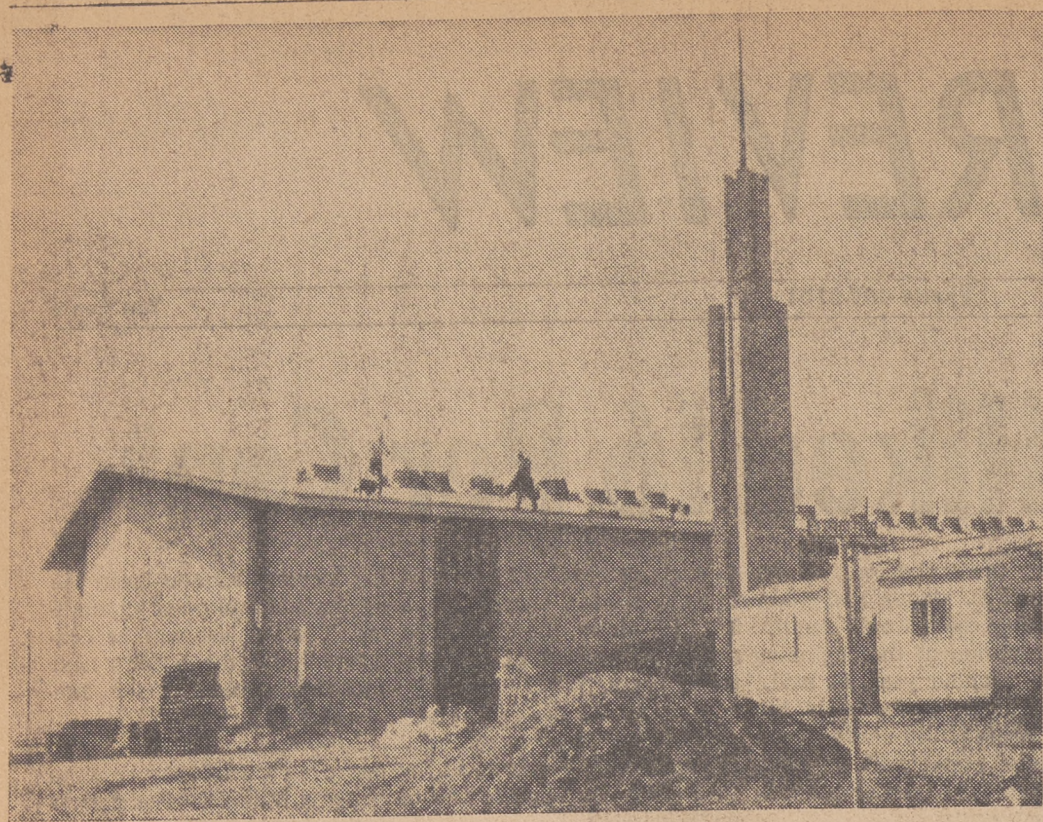

After trying all other means to find her money — even asking a teevee station to put her loss on the air, which it did, she thought then of the Sheriff's Fraud Detail.

Deputies Bill Daw and Andy Nossal started checking banks for a check in the amount of $309.34. They found it cashed and returned to Home Federal. Then they started tracking down the person purported to have cashed it. The trail led to a laborer who works for the City of San Diego. He claimed it had been given to him by another laborer. After a handwriting check, the laborer was Cedilia H. Johnson, 3711 er, Sam Baker, of San Diego, Jill In. and Richard J. Ryan, admitted on Monday that he Jr., 2805 Citronella st.

La Mesa Baptist Church Names New Minister

Richard E. Russell has been named the new minister of Christian education at First Baptist Church of La Mesa. He formerly held the same position at Temple Baptist Church in Perris.

The 27-year-old native of Phoenix, Arizona, is a graduate of Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, and the Conservative Baptist Theological Seminary, Denver. He is married and has two sons. Russell will fill a position recently held on an interim basis by Vickie Schmidtmann, who will continue in charge of children's Christian education at the church.

Genealogical Library Open

The services of the San Diego Branch Genealogical Library, operated by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon), are available without charge to anyone interested in genealogy research.

Located at 3705 10th ave., San Diego, the library has an extensive file on census records, some rare volumes, microfilm readers, and access to the largest single source of genealogy records in the world.

Manon Jacobs, branch library director, is showing a patron how to use a microfilm reader.

Nominal charges are made for copies of materials patrons wish to duplicate.

All other services are free. The library is open daily except Sunday from a 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and until 9 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday.

Holiday Fun For Kids Planned at Copley Y

Vacation activities for children are being planned at the Copley Family YMCA, 3901 Landis st., San Diego.

"Four days of fun and fitness are planned for children 6 to 13 years old," said William A. Friend, director of health and physical education.

Special activities will be held between 9 and 11 a.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday of next week (Dec. 30-Jan. 3) including a ping pong tournament, basketball, swimming, trampoline and joki. The fee will be 50 cents a day.

Reduction of Vandalism Goal of School Project

Lowering the incidence of school vandalism is the purpose of a Student Body Organization Incentive Funds Project approved by the La Mesa-Spring Valley Board of Education.

The project calls for each school's student body to assist authorities in patrolling the school grounds in order to reduce the number of acts of vandalism.

Money used for repairing or replacing vandalized school property will be deducted from an account maintained by each school with the district. Surplus funds at the year's end will go into the school's student body organization.

Supt. James Runge feels such a project will be well received in the schools.

"It might look like an easy way of earning money from the student body's point of view," Runge said.

No definite time was stated when the project will begin operation.

This Week's RECIPE

Raisin-Oatmeal Cookies are Sweet Treats

Snacks and sweets for youngsters — after school or as lunchbox treats — can supply plenty of good nutritional value for growing kids. The secret — homemade goodies full of protein — and vitamin-rich eggs, nuts, raisins, oatmeal and milk products. Nuts, eggs, and milk, for instance, are particularly rich in protein — check your recipe books for sweets that include them. Or, try these nutritious sweets created by home economists for Fisher Nut Co.

GLAZED RAISIN-OATMEAL COOKIES

(Yield: 6 Dozen)

1 cup butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 cup cottage cheese, sieved
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups sifted flour
1 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons cinnamon
2 cups quick cooking oats
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1 cup seedless raisins
Granulated sugar
Milk

Cream butter and sugar to gether until light and fluffy beat in cottage cheese. Add eggs and vanilla and beat until well-mixed. Sift together dry ingredients and gradually add to butter egg mixture. Stir in oats, nuts, and raisins. Chill dough for several hours or overnight.

Form dough into one-inch balls. Dip one side of each ball into granulated sugar, then milk, and then again in sugar. Arrange sugar-side up on greased cookie sheets. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 to 18 minutes and cool on a wire rack.

Letter to the Editor

The following, an excerpt from the "Voice of General Douglas MacArthur" is particularly appropriate at this time:

"The shadows are lengthening for all of us. They are gone glimmering through the dreams that were. They were wonderful years — watered by tears and coaxed and caressed by the days of yester years."

This letter is for the benefit of all Veterans of World War I. There are less than 1.5 million left of the men who marched away to serve their country in 1917 and 1918.

The ranks and membership of the once numerous Baracks are diminishing, but there are those who are eligible in Veterans of World War I, Inc. With it is Blood Bank privileges at a nominal cost. This is an invitation to those who are eligible. Call George W. Carson, 465-4359, for answers to your questions.

Colleges to Participate In KPBS-TV Course

Grossmont and Southwest Colleges are two of 10 local colleges which will participate in a KPBS-TV college course entitled "The Ascent of Man" beginning Jan. 7.

University of California Extension, San Diego is the home school for the 13-part series which will be carried three times weekly at the following times: 8:30 p.m., Tuesday; 8 p.m., Saturday, and again at 8 a.m. the following Tuesday.

The late scientist and humanist Jacob Bronowski will trace the scientific progress of "man, the discoverer" through evolutionary and cultural history.

Information about materials, course requirements, and costs is available at individual campuses or by calling UCSD Extension, 452-3400.

Other participating schools are Mira Costa College, Palomar College, San Diego City College, San Diego State University, San Diego Evening College, San Diego Mesa College and San Diego Miramar College.

Drug Abuse Team To Attend Seminar

The Drug Abuse Education Project Team from Mt. Miguel High School will attend a two-week training seminar on drug abuse education and prevention from Jan. 5 to Jan. 18.

Training will be conducted at the United States Office of Educational Regional Training Center on Drug Education in Oakland, California.

The purpose of the seminar is to provide training for those dealing with drug abuse education problems in grades 7 through 12, with emphasis on the high school level.

Instruction will be provided in group counseling, peer group counseling, group discussions and parent-youth programs.

Coins on Display

Great Western Savings and Loan Assn. will open a numismatic display of rare silver coins Wednesday at the San Carlos office, 8825 Lake Murray blvd. The collection, on display through January 2, may be viewed from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The Great Western-owned collection is a selection of over 100 silver pieces from countries in Europe, North and South and Central America, Africa, the Orient and the Middle East.

Coins of past civilizations in this collection date from the 15th century and yield a wide range of information relating to the mysteries of the past when studied in conjunction with other historical evidence.

BAKE-OFF FINALIST — Mrs. Nancy Pichler, 9377 Crest dr., Spring Valley, was selected one of the 100 finalists in the Pillsbury Bake-Off. Her unnamed creation in the frozen pastry division won her $100, a microwave oven, an electric mixer, and a trip to San Francisco in February to compete in the finals for six $5,000 first prizes and two grand prizes totaling $25,000.

FEPC Outlines Sex Bias Criteria

Guidelines governing procedures to be followed in enforcing the State law prohibiting sex discrimination in employment have been issued by the California Fair Employment Practice Commission.

FEPC Chairman Pier A. Gherini said the guidelines grew out of testimony presented to the FEPC at public hearings held in San Francisco and Los Angeles earlier this year. During the hearings the viewpoints of women's groups, employers, employment agencies, labor unions, government agencies and others were heard. "Their recommendations were all considered by the Commission and many were incorporated into the guidelines as finally adopted," Gherini said.

Designed as an aid to employers and complainants in interpreting the legal implications of the sex discrimination law, the guidelines cover such areas as definition of bona fide occupational qualification; pre-employment practices involving possible sex discrimination in advertising and application forms; maternity leaves; promotion and seniority systems; and employment agency policies.

Guess Who?

MYSTERY MERCHANT — If you can identify this person, or if you have an idea where you might find her, take the above photo to her place of business in Lemon Grove's central shopping district on Broadway. If you are first to correctly identify this mystery business person, you will win a prize. In last week's special contest, Harlan Dye was the first to correctly identify the mechanical Santa Claus who has been greeting holiday customers at Imperial Savings and Loan, 7770 Broadway. He won a portable travel kit. The contest is this newspaper's way of introducing some of your neighborhood merchants and to show that many commodities and services can be obtained locally.

Ladies Auxiliary To Meet Jan. 2

The Ladies Auxiliary Fleet Reserve Assn., Unit 139 will meet at 8 p.m., Jan. 2, at 8118 University ave., La Mesa. Plans will be made for the Annual Spaghetti Dinner to be held on February 20.

The auxiliary will hold its monthly potluck dinner at 7 p.m., Jan. 16.

Weapon Charge Stems From Light Malfunction

Sheriff's deputies stopped Thomas Raymond West, 30, of 4245 N. Cordoba in Spring Valley when the brake light on the auto he was driving failed to work. The tires on Angeles-Orange County area his car were smooth, too. A verbal warning was in order, the deputy reported.

During the interrogation regarding drivers' license and registration, the officer observed a cartridge belt with cartridges in place, projecting from beneath a blanket on the floor of the passenger's side of the vehicle.

Further investigation beneath the blanket uncovered a 357 magnum revolver. It was empty, the report showed, but 44 rounds of ammunition were found in the cartridge belt.

West was charged with carrying a concealed weapon. He will be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court.

Attorney General's S.D. Office in Short Move

SAN DIEGO — The local office of the State Attorney General is now located at 110 West "A" st. in San Diego, the staff having moved across the street from the State Building, State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger announced.

The San Diego staff totals 60 persons, including 35 lawyers, and they occupy the entire sixth floor, plus a portion of the seventh.

The local office includes legal sections concerned with civil and criminal law, and special operations (environment and consumer matters); and the Attorney General's Crime Prevention Unit.

Stereo Stolen

Stereo equipment valued at $100 was taken from a building under construction at Palm and Imperial in Lemon Grove, it was reported Friday.

The building is under construction by Caldivco, Inc. and the office from which the equipment was taken was finished and locked, a spokesman reported.

Riverside 500 Purse Raised

RIVERSIDE — The purse for the January 19 Winston Western 500 at Riverside International Raceway has been raised from $103,000 to $114,000, Raceway president Les Richter announced this week.

The Winston Western 500 is the oldest running major automobile race in the western United States. The 500-mile Grand National stock car race is entering its 13th year at Riverside where it has traditionally opened America's professional racing season.

Only two Grand National races are held on road courses each year and both of them are at Riverside. The other is the Tuborg 400 held each June.

Drivers expected to compete in the Winston 500 include five-time national driving champion Richard Petty, David Pearson, Bobby Allison, Cale Yarborough and Bobby Isaac.

Franken To Run Indoor Games At Arena Again

The ninth annual San Diego Indoor Games will be held Saturday night, Feb. 15, at the San Diego Sports Arena.

There will be a new look to the event in several ways, according to Al Franken, who steps in as chairman for the sponsoring Southern California Sports Assn.

One important change brings a full program of high school events, involving the best in San Diego prep ranks, along with selected standouts from other areas, to the competition.

Jim Cerveny, former National 800-meter champion who's now coach at Morse High, will be meet chairman and will be in charge of the preparation.

Another change marks the return of Franken as head of the meet. He built the event to its loftiest position in 1971 and was in charge for the first five years of the event. The San Diego Track Club, which sponsored the last three years, will assist as co-sponsors this time.

The meet will be strictly an evening affair, emphasizing quality rather than numbers of athletes.

Franken said invitations have been sent to America's leading track stars, along with such foreigners as Filbert Bayi of Tanzania and New Zealand's John Walker. He expects the finest field in annuals of the San Diego Games.

Mt. Miguel Club Provides Food For the Needy

The IXOYE Service Club of Mt. Miguel, a group of ten people organized around the tenets of Christianity, sponsored a "Cans for Christmas" food give-in at the high school to provide food for needy families.

Collection boxes were distributed to teachers, and after a week of classroom competition and giving over seven hundred cans were gathered. Mrs. Annette Stamos, English teacher and IXOYE member was the number one collector with 230 cans collected through her classes' efforts.

With additional money donated by Mt. Miguel's P.T.A., trimmings were purchased to provide 13 Christmas dinners. The 13 baskets were delivered by the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Fire Departments on Christmas Eve morning.

Members of the IXOYE organization said they felt this Christmas had been especially rewarding.

Said one member, "Finally we could give a gift directly to the Birthday Boy!"

What's a Holiday Without Snow...?

SLIP-IDY DO BA — Adventuresome Jenny Moore, 4, discovers the thrill of snow for the first time at Sea World's "Snow Bowl." Learning how to ride out the turns on the gentle slope is the first stage in her sledding experience. Thousands of children are expected to be on hand for the "first snow of the year" at Sea World beginning Dec. 26 when more than 300 tons of snow will fill an area of more than 4,500-square feet in Foremost Bowl. Special reduced rates will prevail during the Holiday Season through Jan. 5.

Snow-starved Southern Californians, rejoice! Sea World has snow . . . 300 tons of it!

During the festive holiday season, Sea World has created a snowy Alpine village, where kids can toss snowballs at each other, perched along a fence, slide down a wet, white mountain of snow, and even take some home to show their friends.

"Snow World" opened to all winter adventurers the day after Christmas and will continue through Jan. 5.

A snowy slope, 18 inches deep and 20 feet high, encourages children to slide and romp in "Snow World." With more than 4,500-square feet of snow, kids will find plenty of the real "white stuff" to create their own snow man. The park also provides snow mats and saucers for children to use for sliding.

The snow is freshened each morning through Jan. 5 by the Union Ice Co. of San Diego.

The kids will have a ball at Sea World this year — a Sea World snow ball. But they should have warm fuzzies — mittens, boots and warm scarves. Youngsters are encouraged to bring containers to take home some snow to show to their friends.

All of Sea World's regularly scheduled shows and attractions will be available, along with the special holiday activities, at no increase in regular admissions.

Sea World's high-jumping, deep diving killer whale star, Shamu, will perform in his "Shamu for Mayor" show several times daily, followed by the daring kite flying of Gary Thompson, top American hang glider pilot. Several Sea World shows will take on a special holiday sparkle during the Christmas season.

Winston Western

Set For Riverside

RIVERSIDE — The Winston Western 500, the West Coast's oldest major running auto race, will open America's professional racing season January 19 at Riverside International Raceway.

This will be the thirteenth consecutive year that Riverside has opened the season with its 500-mile NASCAR sanctioned stock car race. The 1975 edition will carry a purse of approximately $105,000.

The event is internationally sanctioned and open to drivers from all forms of racing. The field, however, will be comprised mostly of regular Grand National stock car drivers like Richard Petty, David Pearson, Cale Yarborough and Bobby Allison, along with the best drivers from the West Coast.

Co-featured with the 500 will be the ninth annual Permatex 200, a $20,000 late model sportsman car race, on Saturday, January 18.

The January classic began in 1963 and gained attention in its early years as the "Dan Gurney Benefit." The popular Southern California driver, now retired, won the race five of the first six times it was held. Other winners have included Richard Petty, A. J. Foyt, Parnelli Jones, Ray Elder, Mark Donohue and Cale Yarborough.

Tickets for the Winston 500 are now available at the Raceway.

Nine Guns in Loot From Valley Burglary

A thief hit an arsenal jackpot at the home of Jack Harold Betz, a cement finisher of 9208 Lamar st. in Spring Valley, it was reported to the sheriff's department Saturday.

Reported stolen were three Winchester pump gun and a

Mausers rifle; a 250-300 Savage 22 cal. rifle; a 30-06 Mauser; a 22 cal. Ruger pistol; a Winchester over-under 12 gauge shotgun; a model 12

Remington automatic model 50 rifle.

Also missing were these jewelry items: a gold compact; a star sapphire ring; a gold anklet; earrings, necklace and ring, all of crystal; a string of cultured pearls and a Polaroid camera.

Betz estimated the loss at $2,675. Police said entry was gained through a bedroom window.

Garage Loss

A thief entered the unlocked garage of Ralph O. Smith, at 9248 Hillside st., Spring Valley and made off with power tools, a torch and a bike which he values at $214. The loss was reported Friday.

Bobby Hull Leads Jets In Game Here Saturday

The first local appearance among the league's top five this season of Bobby Hull, scorers, paces the local of hockey's Golden Jet, will be fense augmented by wingers Gene Peacock and Norm Ferguson and center Ray Addu-Mariners host the Winnipeg Jets in a 7:30 game.

The Jets are led by player-coach Hull, one the sport's greatest all-time goal producers. Hull, who has averaged 41.65 goals a season during his 17-year career, currently leads all World Hockey Association scorers.

Winnipeg, competing in the league's Canadian Division, is in second place behind Toronto while the Mariners are in second spot behind Houston in the Western Division.

San Diego enters the game without the services of defenseman Bob Walls, possibly lost for the year because of a back injury. To take his place, the Mariners have called up Dean Boylan from their Syracuse farm club.

Center Andre Lacroix, 4.

We wish you a happy and healthy year.

Here are Highlights Of 1974 in Lemon Grove

January

An ominous beginning, it rained every day the first 8 days of the new year.

Merchants on Broadway were in an uproar over the "improvements" on traffic controls which many felt caused more accidents and made a mess of traffic. Chamber of Commerce, unhappy with the newly installed control curbs, made recommendations for changes to County Engineers.

Property owners and merchants along Broadway formed a committee to establish a County Service Area to take care of parking and blacktop maintenance on private property.

Lemon Grove Avenue interchange was expected to go to bid within a month with completion anticipated by the end of the year (those hopes proving to be premature).

County Supervisors approved $50,000 for land acquisition for Lemon Grove Park, Area No. 2.

Police officers were attacked and Sheriff's Captain Barney Oldham received a cut to the forehead during an attempt to arrest a Spring Valley man who had entered the home of his estranged wife in L.G. and threatened to commit suicide.

33 pupils from St. John of the Cross met Assemblyman Waddeh and State Senator John Stull during a tour of the State Capitol.

On the lighter side, Optometrist Bob Knauer became the proud recipient of a pearl which he found in an order of fried oysters at Pal's Cafe.

Wiley Cornelius, Principal at Mt. Vernon School, was named outstanding man of 1974 for his work with the youth of the area at the Valley Grove PTA Founders Day Luncheon.

February

Registered voters were scratching their heads over sample ballots, trying to figure out the complicated wording of three proposals regarding parks and landscaping.

On the Broadway controversy, County officials outnumbered property owners five to three in an important meeting set to draw up proposals to improve the parking situation, putting a damper on the problems that were so hotly disputed in January.

Lemon Grove Arts and Crafts Gallery opened on Imperial ave. with an exhibit of works by the owner's son, 14-year-old Richard Prest.

99th Birthday

William West, retired lemon rancher and one of the oldest residents in L.G., celebrated his 99th birthday.

On the business scene, Midwest weather brought former Iowan Mearl Strackbein to Lemon Grove where he purchased Village Liquor store from George Snerla. Harry Holthausen, President of the Lemon Grove branch of Imperial Savings for several years, announced plans to retire.

A major fire did $17,000 damage to the apartment of David Ford.

Top crime story of the month was $4,000 heist in cash and checks from the offices of Leewood Trailer Court.

School District Superintendent Robert Sutton cited falling enrollment and reductions in state and federal aid as reasons for calling a June tax election.

Promising to keep his fingers in the "educational pie," Art Thomas announced his retirement as principal of Vista La Mesa Elementary school, after 35 years of service to the School District.

Weather was in the news late in the month as temperature's climbed to the balmy 80's.

March

The confusing park and landscape issues on the special election ballot were soundly defeated by an almost 4-1 margin.

Plans were finalized for the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley Nutrition Project to supply hot lunches to senior citizens at the Lemon Grove Community Center on School In.

In the midst of the gasoline shortage, two Lemon Grove gas stations were ordered by officials of the IRS Stabilization Investigation to roll back their prices and refund overcharges on gasoline and diesel fuel.

The Chamber of Commerce and several area merchants were still buzzing about the parking mess on Broadway.

Plans to resurface and re-struthe the parking area were discussed.

People in the news were Carol Klee, Mt. Miguel senior clarinetist, chosen as a member of the 1973-74 All Southern California High School Honor Band, and Harold Duncan, L.G. resident prompted Helix Water District superintendent and director of maintenance and distribution.

Illness

Father Kenneth Johnson of St. Philips Episcopal Church was hospitalized for a serious illness.

The School Board voted against a tax election for the year, citing the anti-tax climate of the district. The decision meant a smaller than expected cost of living increase for teachers. Meanwhile, Grossmont High School District threatened to eliminate 100 jobs if the Revenue Base Increase tax was not approved in June.

Dr. Robert Knauer, Lemon Grove optometrist, was named San Diego County Optometric Society President. Another local optometrist, Amorita Treganza, received a special citation from the College of Optometrists for her work in vision development.

A storm dumped 1.45 inches of rain and flooded the pasture of Miller Dairy, but did little damage there or elsewhere.

April

A crowd estimated at 30,000 viewed the annual Old Time

Days parade featuring such notables as sportscasters Al Couppee (Grand Marshal) Al Schuss, and former Padre pitching ace Bob Kerrigan and Ed Runge, former American League umpire.

Residents of Vista La Mesa, area north and west of L.G., were seen to be cooling on the once hot idea to annex to La Mesa. Signatures for a referendum to be placed on the November ballot were lacking.

The Nutrition Project began serving the hot lunches to senior citizens, after 18 months in the planning stage.

Dell Lake was installed for another term as Chamber President at a festive ceremony and dinner at the VFW Hall. Charger defensive end Pete Lazatic was guest speaker at the event and presented a talk that was warmly received.

Demolition

Top business news story was the announced demolition of Hoss Refrigeration, AMC Furniture House, Lemon Grove TV, Dairy Queen, and the Sunkist Inn to make way for a new shopping complex, "The Lemon Tree."

Olin and Dortha Thompson bought Broadway Hardware store from Ernie Southard. J. Lowell Peterson opened Dyna-Metrics, a sign manufacturing firm specializing in one-day service on light, styrofoam-base signs.

Peace Officer Harold (Hal) Johnston, 72, who single-handedly patrolled the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley-Casa de Oro district in the pre-development days, died of a long illness.

Marching bands at Mt. Miguel and Lemon Grove Junior High were selected to participate in the National City Maytime Band Review. 13-year-old Karen Eyer, captured the title Junior Miss Majorette in the County Miss Majorette Pageant.

Skyline Wesleyan Church dedicated its new sanctuary, Sunday school buildings, and administration offices.

May

Flags appeared for the first time along the center island on Broadway between Olive and Kempf sts. Soroptimists International purchased the flags at a cost of $500.

Judges had a difficult time making up their minds, but when it was all over Carol Klee emerged as the new Miss Lemon Grove.

L.G. Sheriff's station assisted Sheriff John Duffy to beat the deadline for 75,000 signatures needed to place the Mandatory Sentence Initiative on the November ballot.

Two types of beetles and a green lacewing insect sent from Sacramento were bailed out of the Post Office when the 13 cents due postage was paid. They were let loose at Lemon Grove Park to feast upon the psyllid pests which were devouring the park's trees.

Lemon Grove resident Stan McDade announced candidacy for Sheriff, opposing incumbent John Duffy, as a write-in candidate in the June Primary.

Another 99er

Mrs. Jessie Churchill was feted at a L.G. Community Luncheon Program honoring her 99th birthday.

Board of Supervisors renewed hopes for the Lemon Grove park at Mt. Vernon and Berry sts. by voting funds from Human Resources Development.

The Fire District sweated over a record preliminary budget for the coming fiscal year. Federal mandate requiring fewer man hours per fireman required addition of two firemen to the district and accounted for part of over $400,000 needed.

The L.G. School District's budget was announced over the previous year to allow for cost-of-living raises for teachers.

June

The monthly Chamber meeting kept the Broadway center island controversy alive. Business downturns since the dividers had been installed and proposals to alleviate the situation were discussed.

Local clubs accented the month. George Jenkins was installed president of the Lion's Club. Sally Harris, L.G. resident, became the San Diego Chapter President of the Sweet Adelines. Dale Bailey became Rotary President.

The Soroptimists, after waging an unsuccessful campaign to landscape the road dividers in Lemon Grove, decided to raise their 31 American flags on the Broadway islands each Friday.

Grossmont School District's revenue issue was one of the few school issues to pass in the June election.

11 Crane st. families signed a petition presented to the School Board to protest transferring 35 students from Mt. Vernon to Golden Avenue School due to a boundary change resulting from subdivision development in that area.

560 seniors, including the January graduating class, completed their education at Mt. Miguel High School.

L.G. Firemen assisted fire fighters from La Mesa in subduing a blaze that destroyed 28 acres of brush on the south side of Murray Hills.

St. Philip the Apostle Church was rededicated following extensive rebuilding. An arsonist set the church ablaze two years earlier.

July

The county purchased a five acre site for Mt. Vernon Park at Mt. Vernon and Berry sts. Construction of park facilities was expected to begin in fall.

A first for Lemon Grove was a Little League "Old Timers Game," the main attraction at Ed Burke Field on Independence Day. In addition to the game, a monument was placed in the park to honor eight other L.G. Little Leaguers who gave their lives in Viet Nam.

Rev. Tom Rothhaar, pastor of Lemon Grove Methodist Church, announced he would climb the highest mountain for some new tile for the fellowship hall. He and church member Dick Yokley planned to accent pledges of 15 cents per mile to cover the cost of the tile, and climb Mt. Whitney.

Pose Cottam accepted an award from the national Soroptimist convention in Portland, Ore., honoring the local club for their work on the nutrition project for the elderly.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Spitzer, L.G. residents, took nearly 50 first place awards for dahlias at the Southern California Expo fair.

August

County engineers faced the Chamber of Commerce and agreed to work toward reestablishing the Broadway-Imperial U-turn and to promote the construction of the proposed redbrick center divider along Broadway.

Requests for bids were sent out for the Lemon Grove Avenue Off-Ramp project.

Contract was awarded to Ham Brothers Construction Company by Helix Water District for an $87,000 pipe replacement project in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

Attorney Jim Dorman was named 1974 chairman of the first United Way/CHAD combined campaign.

Automatic traffic barriers were installed at the Broadway crossing of SDA&E Railroad.

Farewell To Palms

Palm trees at Palm and Golden sts. were being felled to make way for a widening project. One fell on a passing vehicle, but the owner was unhurt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Seaward celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Broadway Hardware was robbed of $680 in a professional day job while owners were temporarily distracted.

An argument at the Silver Spur cafe led to one man, a Marine lance corporal, being gravely injured by four stab wounds.

Would-be robber found that his hatchet was no match for Walter Starr's revolver at Windmill Liquor store on Broadway.

A suspect believed to be "The Mad Bomber of Lemon Grove" was arrested by L.G. Sheriff's deputies. Bombs or large fire crackers had frequently exploded in the alley north of Broadway at Imperial. The suspect pleaded innocent.

September

Public meeting called by County Supervisor Dick Brown drew 60 to Lemon Grove Jr. High to discuss annexation and incorporation. A feasibility study proposed by Brown at no cost to residents was met with general approval although three residents objected to so much as a study as they desired no change.

The Board of Supervisors also approved $92,000 to develop Skyline Drive Park near the Jamacha-Skyline intersection.

Lemon Grove schools opened their doors to 3,480 kindergarten through eighth graders, slightly less than were expected.

A campaign was launched to gain merchant support for the free tree dances offered by the Lemon Grove VFW.

Richard and Judy Holst became the new owners of Lemon Grove Florists on Broadway.

Nutrition Heist

$57 in funds collected by the Lemon Grove Nutrition Project were taken by force from Sarah Resnik who was carrying the money to a bank for deposit.

The Kiwanis sponsored Kid's L.G. Wrapup continued Day Parade was its annual success.

Rock throwing and fist fights broke out at Monte Vista High School, the result of racial tensions there. Several persons were arrested.

Andrew Kerr and mother Lillian reopened their health food and antique stores after months of extensive remodeling.

October

Kiwanis Apple Days sold 1,100 cases of Washington Extra Fancy Delicious apples to benefit various Kiwanis civic projects — 110,000 apples were sold.

Glenda Jackson became the new Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, replacing Helen Myers.

Chamber discussed a working proposal for Broadway merchants to alleviate the daily jams in the shopping district. The plan involved alternate parking procedures for employees of the Broadway shops. No parking signs on Golden avenue further complicated the parking problem. Spaces were reserved for Sheriff's Department vehicles.

Business News

On the business front, Park and Josephine Sam celebrated their 11th year in Lemon Grove at Sam's Far East Restaurant: the Tea Pot Inn changed its name to Chinese Gardens; and Wayne Hillman, new owner of Village Liquor, announced that his store would be a drop-off point for canned goods for the needy and that he would donate 2% of his profits to the cause, as well.

Ulrich gas station changed its name to UCO and lowered its prices, to become one of the few firms to charge less than 50 cents for a gallon of gas.

Detectives uncovered $3,500 in stolen loot at the home of a 16-year-old Lemon Grove youth.

A self-appointed committee formed to promote a local Paramedic program, despite L.G. Fire District's desire not to have one under its jurisdiction.

Mt. Miguel band was again selected by the Rose Parade Committee for the coming New Year event.

An 8% salary increase was approved by the teachers of the Grossmont Union High School District.

Group leaders were named for the United Way/CHAD campaign by chairman Jim Dorman who announced a goal of $11,600 for Lemon Grove.

November

Judge Luther Nye Hussey died after a long and painful bout with cancer.

A suit filed four years ago by the School District was settled in District's favor. It brought $110,000 in held-up federal funds and pushed back the possibility of a tax election.

A major heist from a Lemon Grove Junior High van was solved when sheriff's deputies, acting on the slimmest clues, rooted out two schoolboys, 15 and 17, who dumped the unsuable part of the loot in various trash cans. The boys faced juvenile court.

LAFCO announced that Lemon Grove and Spring Valley would not be included in the Heartland Emergency Paramedic District.

Tentatively approved in October, the Lemon Grove Community Plan became one of four plans to be recalled for a County Board of Supervisors hearing in December when San Dieguito's plan was successfully contested by lawyers.

IPO Born

County Supervisor Dick Brown introduced a plan for integrating the various planning associations in the county, appropriately named the Integrated Planning Office. The proposal was to be considered by the board at a January meeting.

Skyline Wesleyan Church celebrated its 20th anniversary and Lemon Grove Lutheran Church its 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Piercey, L.G. residents, were feted on their golden wedding anniversary.

Lemon Grove received its own crisis house, Crisis Cottage, on Main st. A group of volunteers searched for personnel and furniture.

Robert Gene Murray was shot to death by Lemon Grove Sheriff's Deputies who said that he failed to heed officer's order to stop his auto. Murray was being apprehended on suspicion of gun theft. A week later, the partner of the slain man, Maxey Coleman Romaine, was arrested for pandering and pimping in connection with the same investigation.

December

The revolving door turned at the Lemon Grove Sheriff's Office. Moved to a central division post was Capt. Barney Oldham who had been at the Lemon Grove station since February, 1972. It was 18-year veteran Henry Schlip who was promoted from Lt. to Captain of the Lemon Grove station.

Visible signs of change were finally noticeable off Highway 94 as Daley Construction company began excavation and drainage work on the Lemon Grove Avenue off-ramp project.

Donald Schauffer was installed as worshipful master of L.G. Masonic Lodge 736.

The Lemon Grove Plan went up for a County hearing in the County Administration Center.

Board of Supervisors approved funding that would extend the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley Nutrition Project through September.

IRS TAX ANSWERS
F. S. Schmidt, DISTRICT DIRECTOR, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. Can I begin making tax deductible contributions now an income tax return I filed to an individual retirement savings program under the new pension reform legislation?

A. No. The legislation does not permit such contributions until January 1, 1975. Starting next year, both employees and self-employed persons receiving compensation will be able to establish individual retirement savings programs if they are not covered under qualified employer plans, Government plan or certain annuities.

Q. While looking for a new job, I've had to pay for transportation to interviews, duplication of my resume and fees to employment agencies to look for a position for me. Are any of these expenses tax deductible?

A. No. Job-hunting expenses—those you incur with the hope of future employment—and fees paid to employment agencies for seeking rather than securing new employment are not deductible. The fee you pay to an agency for actually getting you a new job is deductible.

Q. Which fees that I pay to my broker are deductible income-producing expenses?

A. Fees you pay to your broker, a bank, or similar agent to collect your bond interest or dividends on shares of stock are deductible. But a fee you pay to your broker to acquire investment property, such as stocks or bonds, is not deductible. It is added to the cost of the property.

Q. I just found an error on my return. Is it too late for me to file an amended return to correct this mistake?

A. No. An amended return or refund claim (Form 83 or 1040X) must be filed within three years from the date you filed your original return (a return filed early is considered to have been filed on the due date) or within two years from the time the tax was paid, whichever is later.

Rabies Vaccine Clinics To Be Held in January

Several public rabies vaccination clinics will be held in this area during the month of January.

Dog owners will be able to get their pets vaccinated for $2 at the clinics, which will be sponsored by the San Diego County Veterinary Medical Association.

Locations and dates for the area clinics are: La Mesa—7 to 9 p.m., Jan. 7, at the La Mesa Swim Pool, 8440 University; Lemon Grove—7 to 9 p.m., Jan. 8, at the San Altos School, 1750 Madera; and Spring Valley—7 to 9 p.m., Jan. 14 at the Casa de Oro Fire Station, 905 Gillespie dr.

Dogs must be at least 4 months old to receive the vaccine which is good for a two-year period. No checks will be accepted for the vaccination cost of this year.

There were an estimated 810 such as stocks and bonds, is thousands cows and heifers on California dairy farms at the start of this year.

The Year That Was . . . 1974

An Old Year Passes

This page represents some of the happenings in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area in 1974. The editors were objective in their choice and portray here more happiness than sadness. The photos are easy to identify.

Starting at the left top is the Spring Valley team that won the National Bobby Sox championship.

The highest award conferred upon a Catholic girl by the church is the Marian Award which was presented to members of Court Teresa of Avila, Junior Catholic Daughters of America.

Al Couppee, noted sportscaster, was grand marshal of Lemon Grove's annual Old Time Days and Sharon Meyer was selected Miss Spring Valley.

Sheriff's Captain Henry Schilpp was assigned officer in charge of the Sheriff's Lemon Grove office replacing Captain Barney Oldham. At bottom, Kenneth Conrad, Lemon Grove mortician, who died late in the year.

Kelly Stubbs was winner and loser of the Miss Teenage San Diego when it was discovered that her birthday came one day too soon and Debbie Sanders was the homecoming Queen at Mt. Miguel High school.

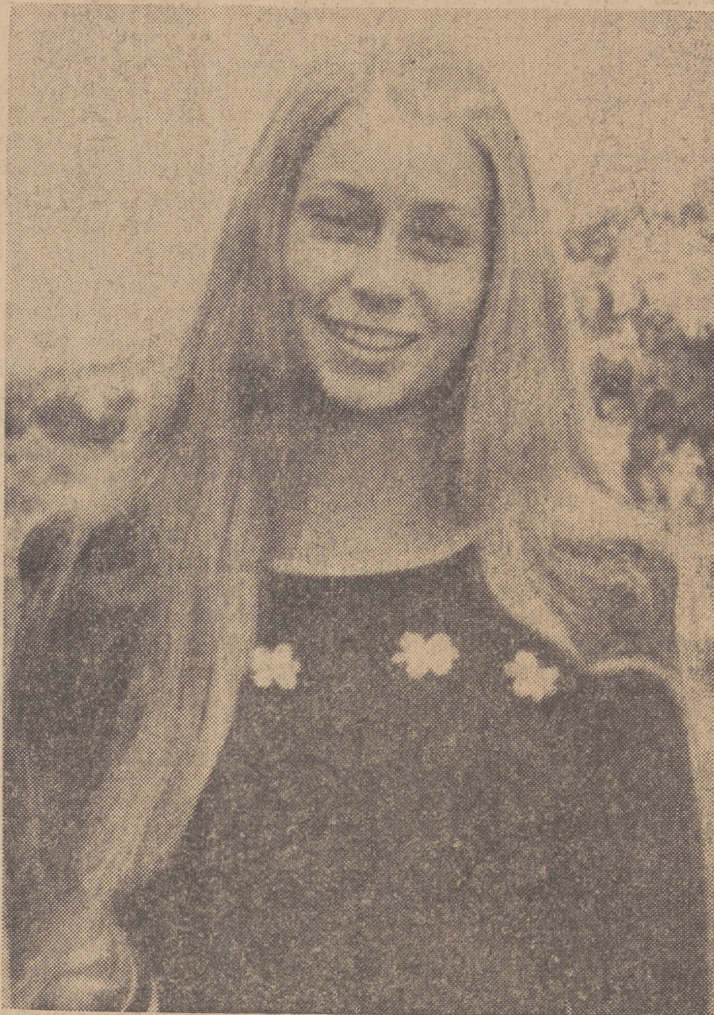

Dr. Robert Sutton, superintendent of the Lemon Grove School District as part of a Kiwanis project, serves a patron at the Senior Citizens Nutrition Center as it opened.

Famed Don Diego is surrounded by community queens. At extreme right is Carol Klee, Miss Lemon Grove and Sharon Meyer, Miss Spring Valley.

Things grow bigger . . . a Spring Valley grown squash is displayed by little Sheri Collins and Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin attends a Lemon Grove dinner marking the naturalization of Kenny Wong.

Marie Hitchcock, the perennial Puppet Lady of Spring Valley entertains the tiny, the ill and the needy throughout the year and H. A. "Tommy" Thomas and his wife Sallie celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. He retired earlier in the year from his long-time post as editor of the Spring Valley BULLETIN.

Here is What Happened In Spring Valley in 1974

TAKE

By John E. Wirges

You won't believe it, but Dr. Arnold Mandell finally admitted that psychiatrists have no business looking into the business of professional football.

You all remember Dr. Mandell. He was that rather mousey looking character who joined Gene Klein on the sidelines at Charger games during the reign of Harland Svare. Klein would stride meaningfully to and fro as if to communicate his will to win by his sheer force of desire, while the good doctor seemed to stand around as if he were listening to giants speak in a strange tongue.

Perhaps referring to Dr. Mandell's appearance as "mousey" does the good medico an injustice. He is a man of average size, give or take an inch or so, and he sports well cut clothes rather well.

In the world of football, or what ever it was during Harland Svare's time in office, Dr. Mandell just didn't seem to fit into the scene. He was a jarring reminder of life outside the grunt and sweat of professional athletics. The man lived and prospered through his head, not his brawn. He was an intellectual, a man of learning and letters.

The nearest thing most football players equate with letters is the generally seedy sports writer that infiltrates his locker room and asks such learned questions as, "When did you realize the game was won?" or in the Chargers case of recent years, "When did you realize the game was lost?"

Reporters, for the most part, are not to be confused with intellectuals. We are, I confess, hard working, honest, sober minded, decent folks who behave ourselves in company and pick up the tab when it comes our turn. (Reporters, by the way, should not be confused with editors who are usually hard drinking, girl chasing, word dodging types that you would be ashamed to introduce to your mother or any other decent lady.)

But back to Dr. Mandell and his thesis. Like most psychiatrists, he insists on using words that kept this simple soul searching his Funk and Wagnalls, but his effort was easy enough to follow, once you got the hang of it.

According to Dr. Mandell, offensive players are the world's good guys, neat and clean, hard working and honest. Defensive players, on the other hand, are bad guys, totally unneat, undisciplined and unloveable. Linebackers especially. The good doctor writes that linebackers would make great assassins, able to get along in enemy country with an air of legitimacy and able to kill with an air of brutality.

It's all there in the January issue of Readers Digest, waiting for the laity of football's religious community to read and ponder.

There are those who claim that all psychiatrists are nuts and the better the psychiatrist the nuttier he is. Dr. Mandell does little in his thesis on professional football to dispel that thought, or even cast light on the vague shadow of its truth.

He reminds one and all that the Chargers were 6 and 22 in his two years as psychiatrist-in-residence and concludes that psychiatry and pro football probably don't mix. For a shrink, that's almost a positive crack.

An air of realism and truth rings through his last paragraphs where he prescribes the best probable position for shrinks and other experts who would voice their views on the doings at hand. Dr. Mandell says the place for him and them is at home in front of their television sets.

Such a clear cut decision as that almost makes one believe in psychiatrists. Now if only he were 6-10, weighed 250 pounds and ran a 9-110, that would be a psychiatrist of a different color. And could the Chargers ever use one of them.

Car Cost Hikes Could Have Been Higher, Article Claims

The $400 to $500 mark up in 1975 automobiles seems astronomical until one looks at the rise in costs to auto manufacturers, it was reported in Automotive Information, a monthly pamphlet published by the Motor Vehicle Manufacturers Association.

The article claims that cost hikes of materials used in passenger car production ranged from an 11 percent increase for glass to an 88 percent increase for zinc. In all, material costs have gone up $430 per vehicle for 1975, the article claims.

$102 for government mandated equipment, $150 for added labor costs, and $50 for miscellaneous cost boosts have reportedly boosted that figure to a $734 average increase per car.

The pamphlet figures, taken

Bank Has Meeting Room for Seniors

A drop-in center for senior citizens has been opened at the La Jolla Federal Savings and Loan Assn. at 9631 Camino del Rio East, Suite 200.

It is open daily except Saturday 1:30-4:30 for cards, checkers, games, reading and refreshments.

There are no fees, dues nor obligation and a receptionist oversees the activities.

The project is sponsored by the Grossmont College Division of Community Services in co-operation with the La Jolla Federal Savings Assn.

from a Detroit News story, indicate that manufacturers have absorbed part of the cost increases.

Another section of the pamphlet cites a growing concern in Congress of the federal overregulating the automobile, action which the MVMA feels has contributed to inflation, new car sales slump, and a declining national economy. The change was recently evidenced in Congress when the controversial ignition interlock system was dropped from the list of new car requirements.

1040's Have Little Changes, IRS Says

Internal Revenue Service reports that 81 million 1040 and 1040A individual income tax forms will be printed this year. For the first time, a fraction of the returns will be printed on recycled paper.

Changes in the 1974 forms are minimal, IRS reports. One addition is a "no" box added to the Presidential Election Campaign Fund check-off, to clarify that the taxpayer does not wish to have $1 of his tax money ($2 for joint return) set aside for presidential campaigns.

The only other change is the reintroduction of Schedule B for reporting dividend and interest income. On 1973 returns taxpayers listed the total for all dividends and interest income. On the 1974 forms, taxpayers who have more than $400 of dividend or interest income must file Schedule B.

O. W. Todd Jr. Asks For Volunteers For Dimes Drive

"With the same help from an informed public that we have had in the past, the San Diego-Imperial chapter of the March of Dimes will launch another volunteer drive against birth defects during January," reports Orin W. Todd, Jr., the 1975 campaign chairman.

"We are asking people in San Diego and Imperial Counties to offer their time and energy toward our goal, that of providing year-round support for research and medical service programs committed to prevention of birth defects."

The March of Dimes, Todd explains, is not only concerned with extending medical treatment to those already afflicted, but in sparing those unborn from physical and mental handicaps.

Much progress already has been made through early detection of high-risk pregnancy and immediate use of modern, life-saving intensive care nurseries.

"A look at the medical achievements at the Salk Institute, University of California at San Diego and the Scripps Clinic and Research Foundation is proof enough that we are making great strides toward combating birth defects," Todd added.

Anyone interested in helping, either by joining the Mothers March or in other important March of Dimes programs, are advised to contact the San Diego-Imperial chapter, 6156 Mission Gorge Rd., San Diego, 92120 or by calling 284-1166.

Ch. 39 News Earns Two "Golden Mike's"

The Radio and Television News Association of Southern California has presented KCST-TV's Eyewitness News with two "Golden Mike Awards" at the 25th Annual Golden Mike Presentations in Los Angeles.

Lou Waters, channel 39 News Director, accepted a Golden Mike on behalf of Eyewitness News for "Best News Broadcast" in its category, competing against major independent television stations in Los Angeles. Reporter Kirstie Wilde won a Golden Mike for "Best Investigative Report" on "Food Stamp Fraud", dealing with illegal aliens using the food stamp program in the United States.

These two awards make a total of five "golden mikes" won by 39's Eyewitness News in just 1½ years of operation.

$693 Million Claimed From Property Tax

SACRAMENTO — Counties

and cities have claimed over $693.4 million in reimbursements from the State for 1974-75 property taxes lost to the Homeowner's Property Tax Exemption filed by almost 3.5 million Californians, State Controller Houston I. Flournoy reported.

"The claims for 1974-75 are more than $42.4 million greater than those for 1973-74, an increase of over 6.5 percent," Flournoy said.

Your Health Tips Ready to Ski?

More than 90 per cent of all ski injuries are caused by poor physical condition, fatigue, and overconfidence in skiing ability.

The first step in accident prevention is to get into sturdy physical condition and stay that way. Well before your skiing season starts, loosen up your leg and thigh muscles. Walk or jog to improve your endurance. When you walk take long strides with a definite kick-off on slightly bent legs. Other

Land Use is Vital Element of Integrated Planning Office

This section is a continuation of the Land Use element of the Integrated Planning Office proposal being offered by Second District Supervisor Dick Brown.

Brown believes that a county planning function should not only be able to inform and aid the public but should also be on a communication basis with all elements of the planning operation.

If Brown's recommendation is approved, it would revolutionize county planning in San Diego.

His proposal, which would require less than 100 additional employees, would bring total coordination to land use and growth, sanitation, flood control, environmental management, transportation and public facilities.

It is an ambitious program for a growth area.

The material was prepared by Pam Engbretson at Supervisor Brown's instruction.

Part 5

A failure to obtain Environmental Impact Reports on lined in adopted plans, resulting in a lack of action on many plan directives. As an example, within the Open Space Element of the General Plan, adopted over 10 months ago, the approved program called for establishment of deposits — such as canoeing, rowing, swimming, and water skiing — will contribute to the strength and flexibility of up such standards or procedures.

A lack of follow-through with the county staff for relating such factors as transportation, sanitation, flood control, etc., to land planning.

Exercise Daily

During the ski season, spend 10 minutes a day in half-knee bends, waist bends, and a few push-ups. Walking on tiptoe is good exercise for the ankles.

To develop the thighs, sit on the edge of a table and straighten the legs slowly. When you are able to extend the legs without trembling add two pounds of weight on each foot and continue the exercise. A simple home device for adding weight is to put canned goods in a pillow case. Increase gradually until you can extend a weight of 35 to 40 pounds without a tremor.

Maintain these daily exercises throughout the skiing season. A skier who is tired is more susceptible to injury because he tends to become careless and is more likely to lose control of his body's coordination. Get enough sleep before the trip and eat well. Most important — don't overdo it. If you are too tired or weak to brake or turn suddenly you may become a casualty.

During your skiing weekend, meals should include food with high energy content. Don't skip meals. Munch on raisins or chocolate during the day to help keep your body supplied with sufficient energy.

Learn from a Pro

It is imperative that the beginner receive ski instruction from someone who is thoroughly qualified to teach. If he tries to learn alone he may teach himself bad position and posture habits, and he may develop techniques which expose himself and others to danger.

Other Tips

A few other tips: Ski with proper equipment. Watch snow conditions; there may be midday softening of the snow and, as the sun sets, trail conditions may change rapidly. Never ski alone — if you get hurt, a ski buddy can get help. Every skier should have an elementary knowledge of first aid.

Do NOT wear long scarfs. The fashionable long scarf can become a noose, dragging the wearer to death or serious injury.

Frostbite fallacy: Do NOT rub frostbitten parts with snow. Rubbing increases risk of gangrene. Symptoms are pink skin just before frostbite develops, changing to white or greyish-yellow. Initial pain quickly subsides and the victim feels cold and numb — usually not aware of frostbite. In giving first aid, 1) cover affected area with a warm hand or woolen material (hands may be tucked under armpits), 2) get victim inside, 3) place frostbitten part in lukewarm (not hot) water or gently wrap in blankets, 4) let circulation re-establish itself naturally, 5) give a warm, nonalcoholic drink, 6) when finger or toes are involved, encourage gentle exercise when they are warmed. Never use hot water bottles or heat lamps.

Remember: Accidents rarely happen to the experienced skier because he keeps himself in good physical condition — he recognizes his own limitations — he keeps his skiing under control — he uses proper equipment and keeps it in good repair — he has learned all the rules of safe skiing — and he knows how to handle the dangers found on the different types of trails.
